THE IDEA

One color pair. One mark. One line. One promise.

The IDEA is Iraq's entertainment brand for the curious: games, music, books, films and gear to buy, rent, bid on or share, from us and from shops across Iraq, and one Pass that opens all of it. It behaves like a clever, warm Baghdadi friend who knows where to get everything. It owns:

- one color pair: The IDEA Pink with the yellow bulb;
- one mark: the bulb;
- one line: اعلگها / Switch on.;
- one promise: the price, the date and the condition you were told, every time, from every seller.

These rules cover everything that carries the name: theideaiq.com and the apps, Partners, Staff, social, Telegram, packaging, events, decks and documents.

01

Brand platform

Purpose	Switch on the curious Iraqi.
Positioning	For young Iraqis who want the world's best games, music, books, films and gear without the hassle, The IDEA is one Pass to buy, rent, bid and share, from us and from shops across Iraq, delivered to your door at a fair price. Unlike other marketplaces, every seller on The IDEA keeps the same promises on price, date and condition, and every "was" price is real.
Personality	Bright, warm, quick, on your side, proudly Iraqi. Never loud for its own sake, smug, corporate, political or sectarian.
Brand line	اعلگها (Iraqi Arabic: "switch it on") · English Switch on.
Formal descriptor	Innovation for every aspect of life.
Proof	The five promises: the price you see is the price you pay · we tell you when · the condition we describe, or your money back · leave any time · a human answers.
Inspirations	Virgin: one color owned outright, a challenger voice, every venture under one name. Virgin Megastore: big, joyful retail. The Netflix DVD envelope: one object everyone recognizes (ours is the Pink Mailer). GameFly: pick, play, swap.

02

Brand architecture

A branded house: one masterbrand, a few plain product names, and one color system for all of them.

Product	Short name	What it is	Line it speaks
The IDEA	—	The masterbrand	اعلگها / Switch on.
The IDEA Store	Store	Music, games, books, films, gear, board games, comics, trading cards and digital codes, from The IDEA and approved shops. Buy, make an offer, bid in auctions, rent single items, send as a gift, get offers from shops for your own items.	Everything worth having, at your door.
The IDEA Plus	Plus	Monthly plans to rent games, books, films and board games with home swaps: Glow, Shine and Blaze, each also as a Duo for two. Plus perks reach across The IDEA.	Play it. Read it. Swap it.
The IDEA Club	Club	The free side: Join (events, opportunities, surveys), Read (news, stories, guides), Yours, and the Telegram group.	Find your people.
The IDEA Pass	Pass	Who you are at The IDEA: the card, Orders, Bulbs, Saved, Settings.	One Pass for all of it.
—	Partners	For shops, suppliers and organizations: selling, perks, Team, supply, developers (partners.theideaiq.com).	Grow with The IDEA.
—	Droid	Our Telegram bot (@theideaiq_bot)	هلو!
—	Staff	The IDEA's team app, with The IDEA Design (staff.theideaiq.com), internal only.	—

Naming rules

- The masterbrand: The IDEA, with IDEA in capitals, every time, in English and Arabic copy (Latin letters inside Arabic text). Never "Idea", "IDEA" alone or "the idea". On Arabic pages the site's own name (logo, page titles) is ايديا.
- Full names in titles and first mentions: The IDEA Store, The IDEA Plus, The IDEA Club, The IDEA Pass. Use them in titles, in ads, store listings and social bios, and the first time a product is named somewhere The IDEA isn't already the context (a press note, a partner's site, a poster).
- Short names everywhere The IDEA is already the context: inside our website and apps, our emails, our documents and our own channels, write Store, Plus, Club and Pass. "Rent with Plus", "Open the Club".
- Partners, Droid and Staff are always short. Never "The IDEA Partners", "The IDEA Droid" or "The IDEA Staff".
- Always capitalized: Store, Plus, Club, Pass, Partners, Droid, Staff, Bulbs, and the plans Glow, Shine, Blaze and Duo, in English and inside Arabic copy.

- Someone's own: use the short name with a possessive: your Pass, my Plus, his Pass, your Saved list. Never "your The IDEA Pass".
- The product itself: when you talk about the product rather than someone's own, use its full name outside our surfaces ("The IDEA Plus lets you rent games…") and "the" + short name inside them ("the Club has three parts").
- People: people on Plus are Plus members. Never "account", "membership" or "users" in customer copy.
- A new name must earn it: customers join it, pay for it or visit it on its own, and it will exist in two years. Everything else is a plain word: Saved, Lists, Queue, Cart, Orders, Help, Make an offer, Auctions, Get offers, Events, Opportunities, Surveys.
- Retired names, never used again: Megastore, Suite, Spark, Business, The IDEA Post, Discover, Academy, Launcher, Journal, The IDEA Space, Sell to us, boxes, the souq price, The IDEA Partners, The IDEA Droid.

Voice and copy

We write like we talk to a friend we respect: short sentences, real words, a little wit, no hype.

Principles

1. Plain first. Say what it is, what it costs and when it arrives. "Rent PS5 games, books and films every month. We bring them, and swap them when you're done."
2. Bright, not loud. One idea per line. No exclamation marks in the product UI; at most one in a campaign.
3. On your side. Talk about what the customer gets, not what we are.
4. Promise and prove. Every claim names a number, a date or a place: "delivered to all 19 governorates".
5. Arabic first. Social, the Club, Droid and campaigns speak Iraqi Arabic ("اعلگها", "يمنا بـ"). Product screens, receipts and legal pages use clear Modern Standard Arabic with Iraqi warmth. English is written as English, not translated.

Mechanics

- Sentence case for headings, buttons and navigation: "See the plans", "Add to cart".
- "You" for the customer, "we" for The IDEA.
- Buttons start with a verb: "Rent with Plus", "Buy", "Rent for 7 days", "Make an offer", "Place bid", "Send as a gift".
- Latin digits with thousands separators, currency after: 22,750 IQD, 99,750 دينار عراقي. The IDEA's own prices end in ...4,750 or ...9,750. Dates in Baghdad time.
- Plus plans carry their item count: "Plus Shine · 2 items at a time".
- Money and Bulbs: prices, payments, payouts, fees and deposits are in IQD; rewards and anything The IDEA gives away are in Bulbs (1 Bulb = 1 IQD). Write "Earn 340 Bulbs" and "2,340 Bulbs = 2,340 IQD off"; "Bulbs" stays in Latin letters in Arabic copy ("اكسب 340 Bulbs"). Never a rewards percentage on a product; plan cards are the one place a rate appears.
- Sellers: a shop's offer always says who sells it: "Sold by · delivered and paid through The IDEA".
- Honest prices: a struck-through "was" price appears only when that offer really sold at that price (15 of the last 30 days). "Lowest in 30 days" backs any "lowest" claim.
- Headlines: a plain first line and a highlighted second: "One Pass. / Everything worth having."
- No emoji in the product UI or official copy; sparingly in the Club and captions, never in place of words.
- Errors say what happened and what to do: "Payment didn't go through. Try another card or pay on delivery."
- Never mock competitors or other shops. No politics or sectarian references; Eid, Ramadan, Christmas, Nowruz and national days are greeted equally.

Bulb on paper

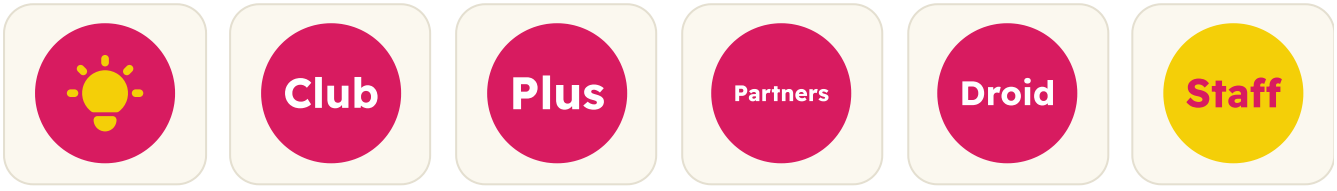

No black in the logo, tiles or brand blocks. The mark lives in pink, yellow and white only. Black (ink) is for reading text, never for the brand itself.

The bulb is the lamp with five rays already used in the app. Never redraw it. The wordmark is The IDEA drawn in Readex Pro Bold, −1% tracking, and supplied as outlines: it never changes with the text font. The lock-up is the bulb, a gap of one-third of its height, then the wordmark; the bulb is 1.6 × the cap height.

Ground	Bulb	Wordmark	File

Paper or white	Pink	Pink	`lockup-on-light.svg`
Bulb Yellow	Pink	Pink	`lockup-on-yellow.svg`
Dark mode or dark photo	Yellow	White	`lockup-on-dark.svg`

- Avatar: yellow bulb on a pink circle (`avatar-the-idea.svg`) on every social network and the Telegram channel.

- App icon and favicon: yellow bulb on a pink rounded square, 22% corners (`app-icon.svg`); `app-icon-yellow.svg` (pink bulb on yellow) for seasonal use.
- Clear space: one ray length on every side. Minimum size: bulb 16px on screen or 6mm in print; lock-up 80px wide.
- Product lock-ups: bulb + The IDEA + the short name in weight 600. Never a separate logo for a product.
- "Sold on The IDEA": shops may show this with `lockup-on-light.svg` or `lockup-on-pink.svg` next to their own logo, never merged with it. A shop never uses the bulb as its own mark.
- Don't: use black, put the yellow bulb on paper or white (it disappears), recolor the bulb, outline it, add effects, stretch it, or set the wordmark in another font.

Name tiles are one bold word on a circle, about 70% of its width, for chats, highlight rings and app shortcuts. All are pink and white except Staff.

Tile	Ground	Word	Used for
`tile-club.svg`	The IDEA Pink	White "Club"	The Club group
`tile-plus.svg`	The IDEA Pink	White "Plus"	Plus highlights and promos
`tile-partners.svg`	The IDEA Pink	White "Partners"	Partner announcements and the Partners app
`tile-droid.svg`	The IDEA Pink	White "Droid"	Droid's profile photo
`tile-staff.svg`	Bulb Yellow	Pink "Staff"	The internal staff group and Staff

Instagram highlight rings follow the tile rule: a pink circle with one white Arabic word.

05

Droid

Droid is our Telegram bot: order updates, Bulbs, FAQs and help, in Iraqi Arabic first. It helps; it never sells.

- Look: the Droid name tile (`tile-droid.svg`) is its profile photo. There is no mascot character: the bulb is the brand's only figure, and a new character, if we ever want one, comes as its own project.
- Voice: short, warm and helpful, a little cheeky, never sarcastic. It greets with "هلو!" and confirms with "تمام".
- Where it speaks: Telegram, and "Ask Droid" in Help on the site.
- Never: in checkout, payments, invoices, legal pages or serious messages (outages, refunds, safety notices).

One palette for everything. Pink leads, yellow lights it up, paper keeps it warm. Products are told apart by their names, never by colors of their own.

Name	HEX	Role
The IDEA Pink	#D81B60	Masterbrand: primary buttons, avatars, app icon, name tiles, the Pink Band, the Pink Mailer, packaging
Pink Deep	#B5134E	Hover and pressed
Bulb Yellow	#F4CF08	The bulb, Bulbs, Highlights, buttons on pink panels, the Staff tile
Paper	#FBF8EF	Light page ground
White	#FFFFFF	Text on pink, cards
Ink (text only)	#0F1014	Body text and headings; never in logos, tiles or brand blocks

Status colors are for states in the product only (never for brand, products or packaging), always with an icon and a word: success #127A4B, warning #9A6700, danger #B3261E.

Print: the screen values above are the reference. Match them to Pantone spot colors from a physical proof before any packaging run (Bulb Yellow is close to Pantone 7405 C).

Readability rules

- On pink: white text. Yellow on pink only for the bulb and text 24px and larger (3.2:1).
- On yellow: dark text; logos on yellow are pink.
- On paper: dark text; pink text is fine (4.7:1); yellow is never text on paper.

- Errors are a true red, always with an alert icon and a word: red and pink sit at a similar lightness, so the icon and word tell them apart.
- Every interactive element shows a 2px focus ring.

Proportions: product screens are mostly paper (or dark in dark mode), with pink for the main action and brand moments and yellow for the bulb, Bulbs and highlights. Social posts, avatars and packaging are mostly pink.

Alexandria for Arabic and Latin: one family drawn for both scripts, with every letter Iraqi Arabic and Kurdish use, including gaf, che, pe, zhe and ve (the samples above). Readex Pro, used before, has no gaf, che, pe or zhe, so those letters fell back to another font and looked wrong in words like the brand line. Geist Mono for prices, bids, Bulbs amounts and order numbers on screens. The logo's wordmark stays as drawn.

Layout, space and shape

- 4px grid; 1200px max content width; 12 columns on desktop, 4 on phones with 16px gutters.
- RTL is the default: Arabic pages mirror completely; arrows flip; the bulb, numbers, prices, countdowns and media controls do not.
- Corners: 10px controls, 16px cards, 28px hero panels and plan cards, pills for chips and tiles.
- Depth: borders first, a soft shadow for resting cards, a stronger one only for floating layers. No gradients or glows.

Innovation for every aspect of life.

1. The bulb kicker. A small yellow bulb (pink on paper) centered above every post headline, slide title and receipt header.
2. The Highlight. One or two headline words on a yellow swipe with dark text; on pink grounds, the words simply turn yellow. One per headline.
3. Bulbs. Our rewards: 1 Bulb = 1 IQD. The small yellow bulb icon is reserved for Bulbs and nothing else (not condition, not plans). Everyone earns 2%; Plus Glow 3%, Shine 4%, Blaze 5%, on everything except digital codes and Plus fees. Spend them in steps of 250, from 1,000. No tiers, no cash-out, no transfers.
4. Honest prices. The price, then, only when it's true, the struck-through "was" price. "Lowest in 30 days" sits under every price on a product page. Student prices and Plus prices are labeled and shown only to those who get them. There is no market or souq price.
5. Condition labels. Every copy for sale that isn't new shows one plain outline label: علبة مفتوحة Open box · مجدّد Refurbished · مستعمل Used. New shows no label. No meter, never a bulb; letter grades stay internal; rentals show no condition label.
6. Plan marks. The plan's name in pink with its item count: Plus Glow · 1 item, Plus Shine · 2 items, Plus Blaze · 4 items; "Duo" follows when shared ("Plus Shine Duo").
7. The Pink Band. One full-width pink band per page with a white headline (one yellow phrase) and a yellow button: the main call to action, also at events and on staff wear.
8. The Pink Mailer. Every Plus rental travels in the Pink Mailer (see the Packaging guide).
9. The Rays. Short rounded strokes from the bulb's own rays, fanned or ringed, as a pattern on packaging, backdrops and empty states; yellow on pink. One ray pattern per layout.

Imagery and illustration

- Catalog products: cut-out, front-on or three-quarter, centered; on pink for posts and promos, on paper in the product. Soft even light, no props.
- One-of-a-kind copies (used items, auctions, collectibles): the seller's own photos of that exact copy, at least 3, in daylight, on a plain ground, showing any wear. Never a stock image in place of the real copy.
- People: real Iraqis in real places: Mutanabbi Street, a Karrada café, a campus, a Basra living room. Natural light, candid moments. No stock handshakes.
- Illustration: one flat vector style built from the radius scale and the rays: solid shapes in pink, yellow and paper plus skin tones, no gradients or 3D, no clip-art, no mascot. A core set of 30 scenes (exams, travel, study, events, Eid, Ramadan, deadlines, jobs, countries) keeps the Club in one style.
- Third-party marks and game art appear only to describe genuine products.

Announcement, opportunity or survey	1080 × 1350	Yellow	Pink headline, dark details, a name tile tag

Captions: Arabic first, English after a line break when needed; end with the action and the link: "اطلب من التطبيق ← theideaiq.com". Telegram channel posts that invite discussion end with "Talk about it in the Club →", linked to the right room.

The Club's rooms (Telegram topics and the website, one list): The Stage (announcements) · The Lounge · The Arcade (games) · Vibe Check (music) · The Library (books) · The Studio (art and writing) · The Office (study, careers, opportunities, surveys).

Product UI and navigation

- Phone tabs: Store · Plus · Club · Pass. Hidden during sign-in and checkout.
- Top bar: on phones, logo · search · Saved (heart) · bell · cart; on desktop, logo · Store · Plus · Club · search · Saved · bell · cart · Pass. Only the bell (unread) and the cart (items) show counts.
- Footer: desktop only, one slim line (For partners · About · Careers · Help · Legal, language and theme). Phones and the apps have none: About & help is the last row of the Pass, and the version and build sit at the bottom of /about.
- Where things live: your Pass holds the card, Orders, Bulbs, Saved (Saved · Lists · Queue) and Settings; /plus holds Your Plus (plan, rentals, swaps, "Next up"); /club holds Yours (tickets, surveys, applications).

- Buttons: the primary action is pink with white text, whatever it is (buy, rent, bid); on pink panels it is yellow with dark text; secondary actions are outlined.
- States show in a word with an icon: Price dropped, Back in stock (success) · Out now, Rentable now (pink) · Coming soon, Unavailable (neutral). Auctions show time left in mono; in the last hour they turn to the warning tone with "Ending soon".
- Two themes: Paper (light) and Dark, following the system setting.
- Icons: Lucide, 1.75px stroke, rounded joins, `currentColor`; directional icons flip in RTL. The bulb icon only for Bulbs.
- Motion: things "switch on": a fade with scale 0.96 → 1 in 120–240ms, no bounce; reduced motion means opacity only.
- Every text and control meets WCAG 2.2 AA in both themes. Games show their age rating.

Places and objects

- Packaging: every box, mailer, tape, seal, card and bag is specified in the separate Packaging guide.
- Events and pop-ups: yellow rays on pink backdrops and the Pink Band.
- Staff at events: pink tee or jacket, yellow bulb on the chest, "اعلگها" across the back.
